Members who wish to let their name stand for any union office must either be present during the nominations, or provide a written and signed notice to the Unit Chairperson or Recording Secretary prior to, or during the meeting, stating that they will accept the nomination.

No member may offer for more than one office. Anyone nominated for more than one office must declare immediately for which office they will be a candidate.

Nomination & Election of Table Officers and Executive Board Members-at-Large

As per the IBEW Local 37 Bylaws (Article III), eligible members may be nominated at any of the April 2022 Unit Meetings. An Election Judge, and as many Tellers as are required, shall be appointed by the President at the close of nominations (after the date of the last unit meeting in April 2022). The appointees may not be a candidate for any office.

The election of the Table Officers and Executive Board Members-at-Large shall be by mail ballot. Each member will be sent complete voting instructions and ballots to their last known home address during the third week of May. If you have had a recent change of address or are moving, please send us an email with your updated address to info@ibew37.com.

Ballots will be counted by the Election Judge and Tellers on June 21st, 2022 at the Ramada Hotel in Fredericton. Any candidate may be present, or have an IBEW member as an observer present, at the counting of the ballots.

The elections shall be decided for the candidate receiving the most votes for a specific office; should a tie occur; a run-off election shall be held within 21 days from the date of the official count.

Nomination & Election of Unit Officers: Chairperson (Executive Board representative), Vice Chairperson, Recorder, and Executive Committee

As per the IBEW Local 37 Bylaws (Article XII), eligible members must be nominated for Unit Officer positions at the April 2022 Meeting of the Unit to which they belong. Election of these positions will occur during the June 2022 Unit meetings.

Voting at the June Unit meeting shall be by secret ballot. One Election Judge, and as many Tellers as are required, shall be appointed by the Unit Chairperson to conduct the election. Any candidate may be present, or have an IBEW member as an observer present, during the voting and at the counting of the ballots. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes for each Unit office shall be declared elected.

Eligibility

According to Article III, Section 7 (d) of the Local 37 Bylaws, a member is eligible to run for an officer position listed under Article XVI, Section 1, of the IBEW Constitution provided "they have been a member in continuous good standing for at least two years prior to nomination." Members are eligible to run for any Table Officer position, or Executive Board Representative (Members-at-Large and Unit Chairperson) of the group/unit to which they belong.

If you are contemplating offering for office, please familiarize yourself with the IBEW Constitution and IBEW Local 37 Bylaws. Both documents are available from the Local 37 office. For further information regarding the nomination and election process, please contact the Local 37 office.

Fraternally,

David Brown
President
